

AMY WONG, ESQ.

Amy Wong is a resident of Redlands, California, where she has lived since 2014. She is an attorney with Lewis Brisbois Bisgaard & Smith, in their San Bernardino office.

She is a graduate of UCLA, where she received her B.A. in Sociology. She then graduated from Southwestern Law School in Los Angeles, California, in 2014. She moved to the Inland Empire in 2014 to begin her legal career.

Amy is a member of The Hon. Joseph B. Campbell American Inn of Court, Asian Pacific American Lawyers of the Inland Empire (APALIE), Asian Pacific American Bar Association (APABA), and Western San Bernardino County Bar Association.

At age seven, Amy learned to play the violin. Her two older sisters are accomplished pianists. Her passion for classical music and live performance inspired her to serve with the San Bernardino Symphony and she joined the Symphony Board in 2015.

Outside of work, Amy spends her free time cooking, playing with her dogs, and traveling.
