

HON. CYNTHIA LUDVIGSEN

Cynthia Ludvigsen lives in San Bernardino. She is a judge with the State of California Superior Court for the County of San Bernardino and currently serves in a probate assignment. Previously, she practiced law in San Bernardino for 20 years focused mainly on land use and eminent domain and litigation.

She received her undergraduate degree in Journalism and American Studies from Syracuse University in 1974 and her law degree from The George Washington University in 1978.

In her spare time she enjoys reading, cooking and baking and time with her family.

Judge Ludvigsen and her husband and family have enjoyed the San Bernardino Symphony since they moved to San Bernardino in 1980. She has served as a Symphony board member since 2014 and as Guthrie Committee Chair since 2015.
