

GLORIA MACIAS-HARRISON

Gloria Macias Harrison has had a long history in education and public service.

She obtained an Associate of Arts degree from San Bernardino Valley College, then a Bachelor of Arts degree and a Master of Arts degree in Spanish Literature from the University of California, Riverside. Following a more than 20-year teaching career, she became President of Crafton Hills College on July 1, 2000 and served until her retirement from that position on July 2, 2012. She was Vice President of Instruction at Crafton Hills College for six years, and Dean of Humanities at San Bernardino Valley College for three years.

She was elected to the San Bernardino Community College District Board of Trustees in 2012, representing Area 5 and still serves today.

Mrs. Harrison was a governor's appointee to the California Commission on the Status of Women and served on the California Council for Humanities and numerous state committees on education. She joined the San Bernardino Symphony Board in 2009 and also serves on The Community Foundation, Kiwanis International, and the Crafton Hills College Foundation. She belongs to many professional organizations and is the recipient of numerous awards.
