

MICHAEL D. SALAZAR

Michael Salazar is a native son of San Bernardino. He attended San Bernardino Valley College where he is still remembered for running a four-minute 14-second mile. Later he attended California State University at San Bernardino where he earned a Bachelor's in Arts degree in Business Administration/Marketing. Michael is also a Veteran of the United States Navy.

Michael currently serves as Vice President of Wealth Management for UBS Financial Services, Inc. in Redlands. He has served his community as Personnel Commissioner for the San Bernardino City Unified School District and as a member of the Board of Directors of St. Bernardine's Medical Center and Foundation.

Michael is a patron of the arts in all mediums. In his own words, he "joined the San Bernardino Symphony Board of Directors in 2015 to be of service to the community and to share my expertise so the Symphony will continue in perpetuity for my grandson Jackson, my granddaughter Charlee, and all children of future generations."

<http://www.ubs.com/fa/michaelsalazar>